

Medical Records

As a courtesy, Rio Grande Medicine does not charge for copies of medical records when forwarding them to another physician's office. Rio Grande Medicine does charge for copies of medical records when the patient requests them for personal use or a third party on behalf of the patient requests copies. A current fee schedule may be obtained from the medical record department.